$20 REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber on Saturday evening 9th instant, a negro man slave named FRANK, aged about 35 or 36 years, 5 feet 8 inches high, or thereabouts Said slave is very black, with white teeth, a pleasing countenance, very talkative to those he is acquainted with, but reserved to strangers—is fond of making use of high sounding words—will deny stoutly being a runaway, but can easily be found out by being cross-questioned, where he is from, whom he knows, &c. When he went away had on tow linen pantaloons, flax linen shirt, and probably took with him a blue cloth coatee and pantaloons of good quality, one dimity and one blue cashmere vest.

A reward of $20 will be given for the apprehension and delivery of said slave to me in Lexington, if taken out of the state, or $10 if taken in the state, and all reasonable expenses paid, or the before mentioned rewards paid if secured in any Jail so that I get him again.

SAMUEL TROTTER

Oct. 12---41—tf[?]

-- Kentucky Reporter, 3 Mar 1830, page 3, column 6