100 DOLLARS REWARD

RANAWAY from the subscriber, living in Woodford county, on the 15th inst. A negro man, named COOL.

He is a stout, fierce looking and free spoken fellow; one tooth out in front of his upper jaw, a small scar on his upper lip, and a blacksmith by trade. The above reward will be given, if taken out the State; Twenty, if taken out of the counties of Mercer, Woodford, Jessamine and Fayette: and if taken in either of the above counties, Ten Dollars, if confined so that I get him.

DAVID RICE

July 25, 1827.—59tf

Kentucky Reporter, 4 Aug 1827, page 3, column 3