$20 REWARD!

WILL BE given by the subscribers for the apprehension of a negro man named NED, belonging to the estate of Johnathan Parrish, dec'd. He left our bagging factory in Clarke county, about the last of July, and carried off with him sundry articles of clothing not known. Ned is a well made fellow about 5 feet 5 or 6 inches in height, black complexion, a down sad countenance and a considerable scar on one of his cheeks, the appearance of a stroke from a knife or some edged instrument.

It is supposed that he is either in or about Frankfort, or the neighborhood of the place called the stamping ground, as his father who is a free negro resides near the latter place and owns a small parcel of land and other property.

The above reward will be given if taken out of this county and FIFTEEN DOLLARS if in this county.

The editor of the Kentuckian at Frankfort will please insert the above for three weeks, and toward his account to the bar of Postlethwaite's inn for payment.

CHILES & TAGGART

Athens, Fayette C'ty Ky. Sept. 8-36-3t*

-- Kentucky Reporter, 22 Sep 1830, page 4, column 3