$150 REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, on the 30th day of August 1829, a Negro Boy named CHARLES,

About 16 or 17 years of age, black complexion, slender form, has lost one of his upper front teeth, and has a small scar on the right temple, caused by the opening of the temporal artery. He was seen on North Elkhorn for the first two or three months of his absence, but since that time his hiding place is unknown. I will give for his apprehension, $50 if taken in the county of Fayette, $75 if taken in the state, and $150 if taken out of the state; but in all cases he must be so secured that I get him; and if delivered at my Bagging Factory in Lexington, all reasonable expenses will be paid in addition

MASLIN SMITH

Lexington, Jan. 27, 1830---4—11

The Focus, Louisville; Liberty Hall, Cincinnati; and Western Citizen, Paris; will publish the above once a week for four weeks, and forward their accounts to the Reporter Office for collection.

-- Kentucky Reporter, 3 Mar 1830, page 3, column 6